

2015 Winter/Spring Continuing Legal Education

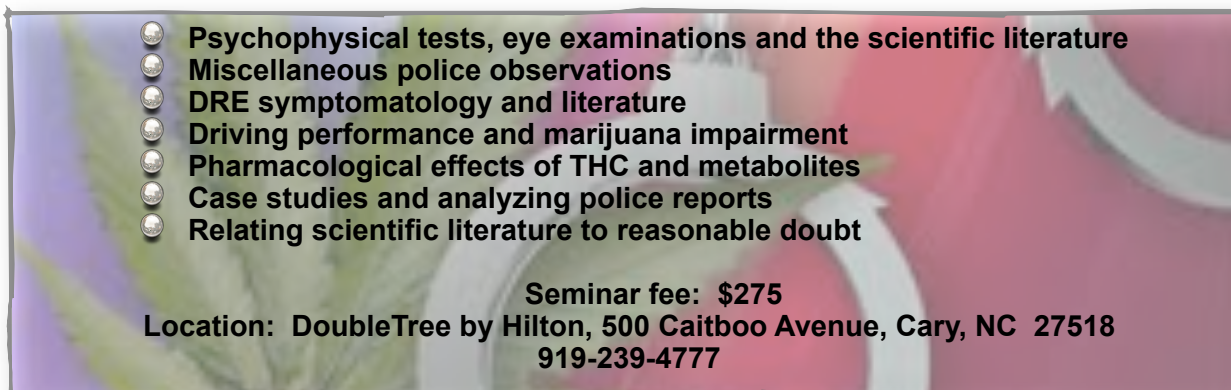

DWI Scientific & Technical Topics - 6 CLE Friday, February 13, 2015 9:00 am - 5:00
Doug Scott, CSAPC Consultant and expert witness

- NHTSA 2013 Manual Revisions
- Field test sensitivity, specificity, and reproducible results
- Scientific literature and psychophysical field tests
- Retrograde extrapolation, serum alcohol conversion, and understanding retrograde reliability limitations
- Sources of breath testing inaccuracy
- Qualifying and using an experts in DWI cases

Seminar fee: $275
Location: DoubleTree by Hilton, 500 Caitboo Avenue, Cary, NC 27518

DWI Marijuana: Building Reasonable Doubt With Science 6 CLE
Friday, April 24, 2015 9:00 am - 5:00 pm
Doug Scott, CSAPC

- Psychophysical tests, eye examinations and the scientific literature
- Miscellaneous police observations
- DRE symptomatology and literature
- Driving performance and marijuana impairment
- Pharmacological effects of THC and metabolites
- Case studies and analyzing police reports
- Relating scientific literature to reasonable doubt

Seminar fee: $275
Location: DoubleTree by Hilton, 500 Caitboo Avenue, Cary, NC 27518
919-239-4777

TO REGISTER:

Go to www.daarm.com and register online or complete this form and mail or email to:
DAARM, Inc., PO Box 219, Lillington, NC 27546 email: daarm@earthlink.net
Questions: 919-454-1198

Name: _____

Email: _____

Mailing/Billing Address: _____

Check Credit Card _____

Exp. ___/___ Amount to charge: $ _____

Name on card: _____ Signature: _____

DWI Scientific and Technical Topics $275

DWI Marijuana: Building Reasonable Doubt with Science $275